Cancellation Provisions

Legislation requires that you, as a Private Client, have 14 days in which to consider whether the Policy you have bought meets your requirements. The 14 day period runs from the date you receive this Certificate.

If you decide that you want to cancel your Policy you must:
Return this Certificate with the declaration below duly signed within the 14 day period

Not use the Certificate for the purposes of providing evidence to any party who may be entitled to rely on it as evidence of insurance for a longer period than that for which cover was actually provided

Recognise that by signing and returning the Certificate the Policy will be cancelled with effect from the day that we receive the Certificate from you and that cover ceases from that date

Realise that we have incurred expense in underwriting the risk and the setting up of the Policy initially and that we will repay you the premium that you have paid minus £35.00 which covers us for the expenses we have incurred in commencing the Policy, covering the risk, and then dealing with the cancellation of the policy

I confirm that I have read the cancellation provisions and, having considered any relevant matter, wish to cancel my Policy in accordance with the provisions shown above.
